BASIC INFORMATION

1. What Is A Class Action Lawsuit?

A class action is a lawsuit in which one or more representative plaintiffs (in this case, Representative Plaintiffs) bring a lawsuit on behalf of themselves and other similarly situated persons (i.e., a class) who have similar claims against the defendants. The representative plaintiffs, the court, and counsel appointed to represent the class all have a responsibility to make sure that the interests of all class members are adequately represented.

Importantly, class members are NOT individually responsible for payment of attorneys’ fees or litigation expenses. In a class action, attorneys’ fees and litigation expenses are paid from the settlement fund (or the court-awarded judgment amount) and must be approved by the court. If there is no recovery on behalf of the class, the attorneys do not get paid.

When a representative plaintiff enters into a settlement with a defendant on behalf of a class, such as in these Settlements with the Settling Defendants, the court will require that the members of the class be given notice of the settlement and an opportunity to be heard with respect to the settlement. The court then conducts a hearing (called a Fairness Hearing) to determine, among other things, if the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate.

2. Why Did I Get This Notice?

You received this Notice because you requested it or records indicate that you may be a Class Member. As a potential Class Member, you have a right to know about the proposed Settlements with the Settling Defendants before the Court decides whether to approve the Settlements.

This Notice explains the Action, the Settlements, your legal rights, what benefits are available, who is eligible for them, and how you can apply to receive your portion of the benefits if you are eligible. The purpose of this Notice is also to inform you of the Fairness Hearing to be held by the Court to consider the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of the Settlements and Distribution Plan and to consider requests for awards of attorneys’ fees, litigation expenses and costs, and any Incentive Awards for Representative Plaintiffs from the Settlement Fund.

Questions? Visit www.siborsettlement.com or call 8xx-xxx-xxxx

3. What Are The Definitions Used In This Notice?

This Notice incorporates by reference the definitions in the Stipulations and Agreements of Settlement with the Settling Defendants (the “Settlement Agreements”) and the Court’s Preliminary Approval Orders for each of the Settlements.

The Settlement Agreements and the Court’s Preliminary Approval Orders are posted on the Settlement Website. All capitalized terms used, but not defined, shall have the same meanings as in the Settlement Agreements and the Court’s Preliminary Approval Orders.

4. What Is This Action About?

Representative Plaintiffs allege that Defendants,¹ including the Settling Defendants, unlawfully and intentionally manipulated two benchmark interest rates, the Singapore Interbank Offered Rate (“SIBOR”) and the Singapore Swap Offer Rate (“SOR”), to fix the prices of SIBOR- and SOR-Based Derivatives in violation of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1, et seq., Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act, 18 U.S.C. §§ 1961-1968 (“RICO”), and common law from at least January 1, 2007 through December 31, 2011 (the “Class Period”).

Representative Plaintiffs allege that Defendants, as members of the panels that set SIBOR and SOR, made submissions to set these rates that did not reflect the true cost of borrowing funds in the Singapore market. Representative Plaintiffs allege that the submissions were instead intended to fix SIBOR- and SOR-Based Derivatives at prices that would increase the profitability of Defendants’ SIBOR- and/or SOR-Based Derivatives positions and caused investors located in or trading through the United States to be overcharged or underpaid in their SIBOR- and SOR-Based Derivatives transactions. Representative Plaintiffs transacted in SIBOR- and/or SOR-Based Derivatives during the Class Period.

The Settling Defendants maintain that they have good and meritorious defenses to Representative Plaintiffs’ claims and would prevail if the case were to proceed. Nevertheless, to settle the claims in this lawsuit, and thereby avoid the expense and uncertainty of further litigation, the Settling Defendants have agreed to pay a total of $64,458,000 in cash for the benefit of the proposed Settlement Class. If the Settlements are approved, the respective Settlement Amounts, plus any interest (the “Settlement Funds”), less any Taxes, the reasonable costs of Class Notice and administration, any Court-awarded attorneys' fees, litigation expenses and costs, Incentive Awards for Representative Plaintiffs, and any other costs or fees approved by the Court (the "Net Settlement Funds") will be divided among all Class Members who file timely and valid Claim Forms.

If the Settlements are not approved, the Defendants will remain as defendants in the Action, and Representative Plaintiffs will continue to pursue their claims against Defendants.

5. What Is The History Of This Action?

On July 1, 2016, this litigation was initiated as a putative class action on behalf of the named Plaintiffs and other holders of SIBOR- and/or SOR-Based Derivatives. ECF No. 4. The original complaint named two representative Plaintiffs: FrontPoint Asian Event Driven Fund, LP ("FrontPoint"); and Sonterra Capital Master Fund, Ltd. ("Sonterra").

On October 31, 2016, Plaintiffs filed their First Amended Complaint ("FAC") and asserted claims under the Sherman Act, RICO, and common law. ECF No. 119. Defendants moved to dismiss based on lack of subject matter jurisdiction, lack of personal jurisdiction and failure to state a claim. ECF No. 144. On August 18, 2017, the district court issued an opinion denying in part and granting in part Defendants' motion to dismiss the FAC, with leave to file a further amended complaint. ECF No. 225.

On September 18, 2017, Plaintiffs filed the Second Amended Complaint. ECF No. 230, 237. Defendants again filed a motion to dismiss asserting lack of subject matter jurisdiction, lack of personal jurisdiction, improper venue, and failure to state a claim. ECF Nos. 238-45. On November 27, 2017, Plaintiffs filed their opposition to Defendants' motion. ECF No. 249.

While the motion to dismiss the SAC was pending, Citi and JPMorgan reached settlements in principle with Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs and Citi executed a binding term sheet and notified the Court of the Citi Settlement in a letter dated April 9, 2018. ECF No. 280. Plaintiffs and JPMorgan executed a binding term sheet and notified the Court of the JPMorgan Settlement on June 5, 2018. ECF No. 301.

On October 4, 2018, the Court issued an opinion granting in part and denying in part the Defendants' motion to dismiss the SAC. ECF No. 302. The court dismissed with prejudice the RICO claims and the antitrust claims asserted against certain Defendants, but sustained the antitrust claims asserted against Defendants that were members of the panel that set SIBOR. The Court also held that FrontPoint was an efficient enforcer of the antitrust laws for many of its claims, and that Sonterra was not an efficient enforcer. Lastly, the Court held that the documents submitted appeared to show an assignment of rights by FrontPoint and Sonterra to Fund Liquidation Holdings LLC ("FLH"), which therefore had capacity to sue and granted leave to substitute FLH as plaintiff in a third amended complaint. Prior to the filing of this initial complaint, FLH had received assignments of claims and irrevocable powers of attorney from FrontPoint and Sonterra. FrontPoint and Sonterra then later dissolved. ECF No. 412. On October 26, 2018, Plaintiffs filed their Third Amended Complaint ("TAC"), with the caption updated to name FLH as plaintiff. ECF No. 308.

Questions? Visit www.siborsettlement.com or call 8xx-xxx-xxxx

On November 15, 2018, Plaintiffs sought preliminary approval for the two settlements reached with Citi and JPMorgan. ECF Nos. 314-17. On the same day, Defendants moved to dismiss the TAC, arguing, among other things, that the case had been a legal nullity from its outset and FLH's claims could not relate back to the initial complaint, making the claims time-barred. ECF Nos. 318-29. Plaintiff filed its opposition on December 10, 2018. ECF No. 344.

On December 26, 2018, Plaintiff FLH moved to file a fourth amended complaint to join two new representative plaintiffs from the Class, Moon Capital Partners Master Fund, Ltd. and Moon Capital Master Fund, Ltd. (the "Moon Plaintiffs"), who also transacted directly with the defendants and were injured by the exact same defendant conduct, to cure the specific antitrust standing deficiency identified by the Court in its October 4, 2018 opinion. ECF Nos. 347-48.

On July 26, 2019, the Court issued an opinion and judgment dismissing the TAC on the ground that it lacked subject-matter jurisdiction over the entire action from its outset. ECF No. 393. The Court also held that this lack of jurisdiction could not be remedied through substitution of a new class representative with standing to sue. ECF No. 393.

The Court also denied Plaintiffs' motions for preliminary approval of the settlements with Citi and JPMorgan based on its holding that the Court lacked jurisdiction over the Action. ECF No. 393.

On August 26, 2019, Plaintiffs filed a Notice of Appeal of the Court's July 26, 2019 opinion. ECF No. 397. After the parties fully briefed the issues, on March 17, 2021, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit issued a decision vacating the Court's July 26, 2019 opinion. ECF No. 412. The Second Circuit held that the Court had and always had subject-matter jurisdiction over the Action and that any issues related to capacity of certain of the Plaintiffs could be cured through substitution. The Second Circuit also stated that the Court should allow for the filing of the Fourth Amended Complaint and the addition of the Moon Plaintiffs.

Between August 2021 and October 2021, Plaintiffs reached individual agreements in principle with ING, Credit Suisse, HSBC and Deutsche Bank to settle the claims against them in the Action.

On October 22, 2021, the Court granted FLH and the Moon Plaintiffs leave to file their Fourth Amended Complaint ("4AC"), which they filed on October 25, 2021. ECF Nos. 436-37. On November 24, 2021, Defendants moved to dismiss the 4AC on the grounds that: the Court lacks subject-matter jurisdiction, the Court lacks personal jurisdiction over certain foreign Defendants; and that Plaintiffs lack statutory antitrust standing or fail to allege an antitrust conspiracy. ECF Nos. 446-48. FLH and the Moon Plaintiffs opposed the motion. ECF No. 451.

On May 13, 2022, FLH and the Moon Plaintiffs moved for preliminary approval of the settlements with the Settling Defendants. The Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlements on _____. ECF Nos. _____.

6. Why Are There Settlements?

Representative Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' Counsel believe that Class Members have been damaged by Defendants' conduct. The Settling Defendants believe that they have meritorious defenses to Representative Plaintiffs' allegations and believe that Representative Plaintiffs' claims would have Questions? Visit www.siborsettlement.com or call 8xx-xxx-xxxx been rejected prior to trial, at trial (had Representative Plaintiffs successfully certified a class and survived summary judgment motions), or on appeal. As a result, Settling Defendants believe that Representative Plaintiffs would have received nothing if the litigation had continued to trial.

The Court has not decided in favor of either Representative Plaintiffs or Defendants. Instead, Plaintiffs' Counsel engaged in negotiations with each Settling Defendant to reach a negotiated resolution of the claims against the Settling Defendant in the Action. The Settlements allow both sides to avoid the risks and costs of lengthy litigation and the uncertainty of pre-trial proceedings, a trial, and appeals, and, if approved, will permit eligible Class Members who file timely and valid Claim Forms to receive some compensation, rather than risk ultimately receiving nothing. Representative Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' Counsel believe the Settlements are in the best interest of all Class Members.

The Settling Defendants have agreed to pay a total of $64,458,000 in cash for the benefit of the proposed Settlement Class. If the Settlements are approved, the Net Settlement Fund will be divided among all Class Members who file timely and valid Claim Forms.

7. How Do The Settlements Affect The Claims Against Settling Defendants?

If all of the Settlements are approved, Representative Plaintiffs' claims against the Settling Defendants and any Released Parties will be released and the Action will be fully resolved. If any of the Settlements are not approved, the respective Settling Defendant(s) will remain as a defendant(s) in the Action, and Representative Plaintiffs will continue to pursue their claims against the Settling Defendant(s).

WHO GETS MONEY FROM THE SETTLEMENTS

8. How Do I Know If I Am A Class Member?

In the Preliminary Approval Orders, the Court preliminarily approved the following Settlement Class:

ALL PERSONS (INCLUDING BOTH NATURAL PERSONS AND ENTITIES) WHO PURCHASED, SOLD, HELD, TRADED, OR OTHERWISE HAD ANY INTEREST IN SIBOR- AND/OR SOR-BASED DERIVATIVES DURING THE PERIOD OF JANUARY 1, 2007 THROUGH DECEMBER 31, 2011 (THE "CLASS PERIOD").

Not everyone who fits this description will be a Class Member. Please see question 9 for a discussion of exclusions from the Settlement Class.

9. Are There Exceptions To Being Included In The Settlement Class?

Yes. You are not included in the Settlement Class if you are a Defendant or any parent, subsidiary, affiliate or agent of any Defendant or any co-conspirator (whether or not that co-conspirator was named as a defendant). In addition, the United States government is excluded from the Settlement Class.

Questions? Visit www.siborsettlement.com or call 8xx-xxx-xxxx

However, Investment Vehicles shall not be excluded from the Settlement Class solely on the basis of being deemed to be Defendants or affiliates or subsidiaries of Defendants. However, to the extent that any Defendant or any entity that might be deemed to be an affiliate or subsidiary thereof (i) managed or advised, and (ii) directly or indirectly held a beneficial interest in, said Investment Vehicle during the Class Period, that beneficial interest in the Investment Vehicle is excluded from the Settlement Class. Under no circumstances may any Defendants (or any of their direct or indirect parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, or divisions) receive a distribution for its own account from the Settlement Funds through an Investment Vehicle.

For purposes of the Citi Settlement, the term “Investment Vehicle” means any investment company, separately managed account, or pooled investment fund managed or advised by Citi or an affiliate, including but not limited to: (i) mutual fund families, exchange-traded funds, fund of funds, and hedge funds; and (ii) employee benefit plans as to which Citi or its affiliates acts as investment advisor or otherwise may be a fiduciary. For purposes of the remaining Settlements, the term “Investment Vehicle” means any investment company, separately managed account, or pooled investment fund, including but not limited to mutual fund families, exchange-traded funds, fund of funds, hedge funds, and employee benefit plans.

10. I’m Still Not Sure If I Am Included.

If you are still not sure whether you are included, you can ask for free help. You can call toll-free 1-xxx-xxx-xxxx (if calling from outside the United States or Canada, call 1-xxx-xxx-xxxx) or visit the Settlement Website, www.siborsettlement.com, for more information.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS

11. What Do The Settlements Provide?

The Settling Defendants have paid a total of $64,458,000 (Citi: $9,990,000; JPMorgan: $10,989,000; ING: $10,490,000; Credit Suisse: $10,989,000; Deutsche Bank: $11,000,000; and HSBC: $11,000,000) to be held for disbursement to the Settlement Class and to pay for Court-approved fees and expenses if the Settlements are approved.

These are not claims-made settlements, and the Settling Defendants are not involved in the development of the Distribution Plan for the Settlements. The Settlements do not provide for a reversion of any Settlement Funds to Settling Defendants. The Net Settlement Funds will be distributed to Settling Class Members to the fullest extent possible.

12. How Will I Get A Payment?

If you are a Class Member and do not exclude yourself, you are eligible to file a Claim Form to receive your share of money from the Net Settlement Funds. Upon the Effective Date of the Settlements, Representative Plaintiffs and each of the Releasing Parties shall release and be deemed to release and forever discharge and shall be forever enjoined from prosecuting the Released Claims against the Released Parties.

Although the releases in the Settlement Agreements are not general releases, the releases do constitute a waiver by the Parties and each Settling Class Member of any and all rights and provisions under Section 1542 of the California Civil Code (to the extent it applies to the Action), which provides as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

This release also constitutes a waiver of any and all provisions, rights, and benefits of any federal, state or foreign law, rule, regulation, or principle of law or equity that is similar, comparable, equivalent to, or which has the effect of, Section 1542 of the California Civil Code.

18. What If I Do Nothing?

You are automatically a member of a Settlement Class if you fit the Settlement Class description. However, if you do not submit a timely and valid Claim Form, you will not receive any payment from the Settlements. You will be bound by past and any future Court rulings, including rulings on the Settlements and releases. Unless you exclude yourself, you will not be able to start a lawsuit, continue with a lawsuit, or be a part of any other lawsuit against the Settling Defendants or any of the other Released Parties on the basis of the Released Claims. Please see question 17 for a description of the Released Claims.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENTS

19. What If I Do Not Want To Be In The Settlement Class?

If you are a Class Member, do not want to remain in the Settlement Class, and do not want a payment from the Settlements, then you must take steps to exclude yourself from the Settlements. This is also sometimes referred to as “opting out” of a class. See question 20.

If you act to exclude yourself from the Settlement Class of which you would otherwise be a member, you will be free to sue the Settling Defendants or any of the other Released Parties on your own for the claims being resolved by the Settlements. However, you will not receive any money from the Settlements, and Plaintiffs’ Counsel will no longer represent you with respect to any claims against the Settling Defendants.

If you want to receive money from the Settlements, do not exclude yourself. You must file a Claim Form in order to receive any payment from the Settlements.

20. How Do I Exclude Myself From The Settlement Class For Any Of The Settlements?

You can exclude yourself by sending a written “Request for Exclusion.” You cannot exclude yourself by telephone or email. Your written Request for Exclusion must be mailed by U.S. first class mail (or, if sent from outside the U.S., by a service that provides for guaranteed delivery within five (5) or fewer calendar days of mailing) or delivered so that it is received by [DATE], to:

Citibank, N.A., et al.*, Case No. 1:16-cv-5263 (AKH) (S.D.N.Y.)); and (c) provide one or more document(s) sufficient to prove membership in the Settlement Class, as well as proof of authorization to submit the Request for Exclusion if submitted by an authorized representative.

With respect to the kinds of documents that are requested under subsection (c) in the preceding paragraph, any Class Member seeking to exclude himself, herself or itself from the Settlement Class will be requested to provide document(s) evidencing eligible trading in SIBOR- and/or SOR-Based Derivatives during the Class Period (including for each transaction, the date, time and location of the transaction, the instrument type, direction (i.e., purchase or sale) of the transaction, the counterparty, any transaction identification numbers, and the total amount transacted (in Singapore Dollars (SGD))). Any Request for Exclusion must be signed by such Person or entity requesting the exclusion or an authorized representative and include proof of authorization to submit the Request for Exclusion if submitted by an authorized representative. The Parties may seek leave of the Court to ask any Person or entity that seeks to be excluded from any of the Settlements to provide documents sufficient to prove membership in the Settlement Class.

A Request for Exclusion that does not include all of the required information, does not contain the proper signature, is sent to an address other than the one designated above, or that is not sent within the time specified shall be invalid and the Person or entity filing such an invalid request shall be a Class Member and shall be bound by the Settlements, if approved.

All Persons or entities who submit valid and timely Requests for Exclusion in the manner set forth above shall have no rights under the Settlements, shall not share in the distribution of the Net Settlement Fund, and shall not be bound by the Settlements. In addition, such Persons or entities will not be entitled to object to the Settlements or participate at the Fairness Hearing.

21. If I Do Not Exclude Myself, Can I Sue The Settling Defendants And The Other Released Parties For The Same Thing Later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up any right to sue the Settling Defendants and the other Released Parties for the Released Claims that the Settlements resolve. If you decide to exclude yourself from any of the Settlements, your decision will apply to the respective Settling Defendant(s) and related Released Parties described in the Settlement(s) from which you are excluding yourself.

22. If I Exclude Myself, Can I Get Money From The Settlements?

No. You will not get any money from the Settlements if you exclude yourself.

23. If I Exclude Myself From The Settlements, Can I Still Object?

No. If you exclude yourself, you are no longer a Class Member and may not object to any aspect of the Settlements.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENTS

24. How Do I Tell The Court What I Think About The Settlements?

If you are a Class Member and you do not exclude yourself, you can tell the Court what you think about the Settlements. You can object to all or any part of the Settlements, Distribution Plan, and/or application for attorneys' fees, reimbursement of litigation expenses and costs, and any Incentive Awards for Representative Plaintiffs. You can give reasons why you think the Court should approve them or not. The Court will consider your views. If you want to make an objection, you may enter an appearance in the Action, at your own expense, individually or through counsel of your own choice, by filing with the Clerk of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York a notice of appearance and your written objection, and serving copies of your written objection on Plaintiffs' Counsel and the Settling Defendants' counsel such that your written objection is received by [DATE] to the following email and physical addresses:

If you do not timely and validly submit your written objection, your views will not be considered by the Court. Check the Settlement Website, www.siborsettlement.com, for updates on important dates and deadlines relating to the Settlements.

25. What Is The Difference Between Objecting And Excluding Myself?

Objecting is telling the Court that you do not like something about the Settlements. You can object to the Settlements only if you remain a Class Member and do not exclude yourself from the Settlements. Excluding yourself from the Settlements is telling the Court that you do not want to be a part of the Settlement Class. If you exclude yourself, you have no right to object to the Settlements because it no longer affects you.

Prior to the Fairness Hearing, Plaintiffs' Counsel will move for an award of no more than $21.486 million in attorneys' fees, which is one-third of the Settlement Fund, plus payment of litigation expenses and costs not to exceed $500,000, and for interest on such attorneys' fees and litigation expenses and costs at the same rate as the earnings in the Settlement Fund, accruing from the inception of the Settlement Fund until the attorneys' fees and litigation expenses and costs are paid. proportion to their contributions to the case. Representative Plaintiffs may also seek Incentive Awards from the Settlement Fund of up to $500,000 in the aggregate.

This is only a summary of the request for attorneys' fees and litigation expenses and costs. Any motions in support of the requests will be available for viewing on the Settlement Website after they are filed by [DATE]. If you wish to review the motion papers, you may do so by viewing them at the Settlement Website, www.siborsettlement.com.

The Court will consider the motion for attorneys' fees and litigation expenses and costs at or after the Fairness Hearing.

THE COURT'S FAIRNESS HEARING

28. When And Where Will The Court Decide Whether To Approve The Settlements?

The Court will hold the Fairness Hearing on [DATE], at [TIME], in Courtroom 14D of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, Daniel Patrick Moynihan U.S. Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, New York, NY 10007. The Fairness Hearing may be moved to a different date, time, or venue without notice to you; any changes to the date, time, or venue of the Fairness Hearing will be posted to the Settlement Website. Although you do not need to participate, if you plan to do so, you should check the Settlement Website for any changes concerning the Fairness Hearing.

At the Fairness Hearing, the Court will consider whether the Settlements are fair, reasonable, and adequate. The Court will also consider whether to approve the Distribution Plan and requests for attorneys' fees, litigation expenses and costs, and any Incentive Awards for Representative Plaintiffs. If there are any objections, the Court will consider them at this time. We do not know how long the Fairness Hearing will take or when the Court will make its decision. The Court's decision may be appealed.

29. Do I Have To Participate At The Fairness Hearing?

No. Plaintiffs' Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. You are, however, welcome to participate at the Fairness Hearing. If you send an objection, you do not have to participate at the Fairness Hearing to talk about it. As long as you file and serve your written objection on time, the Court will consider it. You may also hire your own lawyer to participate, but you are not required to do so.

30. May I Speak At The Fairness Hearing?

You may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Fairness Hearing. If you want to participate at the Fairness Hearing, you may also enter an appearance in the Action at your own expense, individually, or through counsel of your own choice, by filing with the Clerk of Court a notice of appearance and your objection, and serving copies of your objection on Plaintiffs' Counsel and Settling Defendants' counsel at the addresses set forth in question 24, such that they are received no later than [DATE], or as the Court may otherwise direct. Any Class Member who does not enter an appearance will be represented by Plaintiffs' Counsel.
